

Section 8: Linslade Lower School - Home School Agreement

At Linslade Lower School we want every child to be happy and successful. We believe that this is made possible when the school, family and pupil work together. The statements in our home school agreement make the expectations clear for everyone. Please read it carefully and talk about it with your child.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to speak to a member of the staff team.
Thank you for your co-operation.

Ethos

At Linslade School, we provide a safe, happy and nurturing environment in which everyone is cared for, respected and valued. We work collaboratively and cooperatively with each other and the community.

We will:

- Encourage everyone to achieve the very best they can
- Foster a love of learning and the skills to be a learner for life.
- Develop the whole child.
- Provide a well-resourced and stimulating learning environment.
- Use a creative, engaging curriculum as a means to develop enquiring minds.
- Keep up to date and continually develop our skills as professionals.
